GREEN ENERGY

Greens+ Energy Bites in taste-tempting Chocolate are great for backpacks, lunch boxes, or anytime as a healthy snack between meals. These tiny powerhouses are loaded with energizing, organically grown superfoods, soy protein, energizing herbal extracts, and a little bit of honey—and no processed sugar, salt, corn syrup, hydrogenated oil, synthetic sweeteners, preservatives, or genetically modified foods of any kind.

2

ONE FOR ALL

This organic three-in-one (bath, body, hair) soap is free of harsh sulfates and safe for the littlest to the oldest in your busy family. EO Everyone Soap comes in three great scents: Lavender + Aloe, Coconut + Lemon, and Citrus + Mint. Made with pure essential oils, these moisturizing suds are natural, plant-based, gentle, and fragrant—a perfect shower, bath, and shampoo for the whole family.

3

LIGHTEN UP

Jarrow Formulas Skin L&P helps regulate melatonin activation (what creates dark spots) in response to the sun's rays with a powerful blend of nutrients and herbal ingredients that have been clinically shown to support skin health. Glutathione is one of the body's most important protective agents for both skin and liver, while tocotrienols and astaxanthin help improve skin health and tone. Hydroxytyrosol is included to help boost intracellular glutathione levels in the skin, and alpha lipoic acid and vitamin C enhance the effects of these ingredients to give you smooth and luminous skin.

4

SNACK HAPPY

Feel jovial about your food again. Jovial Foods Organic Einkorn Cookies are natural and made conscientiously from seed to shelf. These yummy cookies go beyond organic, baked with ancient grains including an heirloom variety of einkorn (the most ancient wheat). Jovial has a deep commitment to support a small-scale, sustainable economic model that focuses on farming first and considers the entire process all the way through to the packaging. Also try Jovial's pastas and gluten-free cookies.

SUPER SPICE

Hero Nutritionals CinnaBetic II supports healthy glucose levels by increasing insulin sensitivity; supports healthy blood pressure; and promotes lean body mass with an all-natural cinnamon extract, Cinnulin PF. CinnaBetic II is better than table cinnamon because it contains double linked type-A polymers, which are the active components of cinnamon. You get the equivalent of 2,500 mg of whole cinnamon in each serving!

6 American Health

Vegetarian formula promotes immune health and potent antioxidant activity—and it tastes great!

7 Essential Formulas
Dr. Ohhira's Probiotic
Kampuku Beauty Bar

Dr. Ohhira's Probiotic Kampuku Beauty Bar merges the revitalizing power of natural ingredients, ancient Japanese fermentation skills, and modern science to create a clarifying, balancing, and rejuvenating skin cleanser gentle enough for the entire family and suitable for every skin type. This exclusive formula, created by microbiologist Dr. Ichiroh Ohhira, melds probiotic and prebiotic nutrients to help support the balanced ecology necessary for healthy skin.

8 ReNew Life
Flush & Be Fit

Go from worn out to WOW with ReNew Life's Flush & Be Fit, a synergistic energizing detox formula for women. Potent herbs, enzymes, and probiotics help flush toxins from fat, sustain energy, and address belly bloat, irritability, digestion, regularity, flora balance, and more.

9 Carlson for Kids
Very Finest Fish Oil

Recent medical studies have shown the importance of omega-3s for healthy development in growing children. Carlson for Kids Very Finest Fish Oil contains 800 mg of omega-3s per serving and has a great lemon or orange taste that kids love. Try it in juice, on popcorn, or right from the spoon!

10 Source Naturals
Wellness Formula

Wellness Formula delivers a powerful blend of vitamins, herbs, and minerals for comprehensive immune support. This award-winning formula goes beyond other products to support the body's stress response, respiratory system, and antioxidant activity. Wellness Formula has been chosen seven times by natural products retailers as the industry's No. 1 immune support. Available in tablets, liquid, capsules, and fizz drink wafers.

11 Flora
Flor-Essence

It's a toxic world; your body has to process more chemicals than ever before. Flor-Essence works in harmony with your body to clear away toxins from cells, tissues, and organs—leaving you with more energy, a brighter complexion, deeper sleep, better digestion, and a balanced, healthy body. With results like this, it's no wonder that Flor-Essence has been the top-selling detox tea in North America for the past 10 years!
